

USC Gould's Business Law Digest Staff Writer Application 2021 – 2022

Business Law Digest

USC Gould School of Law

Founded in 2018, as Law for Business, USC Gould's Business Law Digest provides business-oriented students with the opportunity to address periods of business innovation and disruption related to the law. Serving as Gould's only business-focused academic publication, BLD publishes biannually on topics relating to finance, tax, mergers and acquisitions, real estate, capital markets, business regulation, employment, and more. The publication also hosts a podcast series focused on timely and significant legal and business topics.

What do BLD writer's do?

Students who join BLD write a 10-page article related to the intersection of law and business during each semester of their participation. Writers receive 1-unit of credit graded CR/D/F each semester in which they are enrolled in the Law for Business course. Upon completion of each article, the student's work will be published on the Business Law Digest website.
